

What can individuals do when social justice is threatened

In 1968, Dr. King said, "We shall overcome because the arc of the moral universe is long but it bends toward justice." Please create a submission that speaks to how individuals can respond to the challenges of injustice in our community.

Due by March 4th, click on the QR code for the application and more information

Winners will be chosen at the elementary, middle, and high school levels and each will receive a $200 prize. There will be a celebration to honor and congratulate the winners at the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Breakfast.
